

1. Q: Did your brother receive any money?

1. A: I think that he received Shares and Bonds as an advance on inheritance

2. Q: Why did the prosecutor dismiss the charges against your siblings?

2. A: He was moving to a new job and did not want invest time into a long investigation. In his final document he wrote that my siblings had done the right thing to stop me from seeing my mother. He had obviously not looked at any of the videos.

3. Q: Does Spanish law allow a British Will to go against the Legitima (forced inheritance)?

3. A: Yes, it does. It is the the EU regulation that is followed.

4. Q: Did the prosecutor have all the proof as presented in this website.

4. A: He had everything, except he did not know about the Will and donation since they were only discovered in 2024. On the issue of kidnapping, he had all the evidence but decided not to investigate this offence under the Swiss penal code.

5. Q: Before the death of your mother in 2022 had you ever tried to find out if she had passed away?

5. A: Yes, many times.

6. Q: Why did your father allow your mother to transfer big amounts of money to your sister?

6. A: At that time, he was no longer checking on his finances and my mother made sure to do it behind his back because she knew that he would disagree to such big amounts being transferred without any justification.

7. Q: Why did it take me such a long time for you to realise that your father had been kicked out of his house.

7. A: I used to phone on a regular basis and talk to my mother. I would always ask how my father was getting on. Today, I know that she had strict orders from my sister to not tell me that they were kicking my father out of the house. My mother always answered me that he was fine. My father had hearing aids which he rarely used, so my father had this habit of sending the same greetings over the phone and no conversation took place. My only option was for me to take the plane to Alicante and see how he was really doing.

8. Q: What did you do in your past to your brother and sister to provoke such hatred.

8. A: There was no big fight at the origin of the feud. Jealousy was probably a big factor as I got more attention from parents. My brother one day decided not to speak to me anymore and I did not do much to change things as this was the second time he was doing this to me. He needed to show that he was the smartest sibling. My sister always kept to herself and very rarely mixed with my family.

9. Q: Why did you not try in Spain to make a civil case after the penal court case was dismissed in Geneva?

9 A: My mother was under the domination of my brother and sister so they could have continued to make her sign documents to discredit the proof I had in my videos. I was pushed into waiting until waiting my mother died to stop them from doing this.

10. Q: Had your siblings discovered the content of the Will before 2010?

10. A: Yes, my brother had made a rare visit to Spain in 2002. My mother told me that she had noticed that he had been snooping around the study, going through the draws of the desk.

11. Q: Why did you trust your sister to look after your parents in 2010 if you knew that she was after their inheritance?

11. A: Before 2010 I did not know that my sister had planned to go after my parent's inheritance. If I did have a suspicion, then I would say that I did not want to admit that my sister could be so evil.

12. Q: Was your mother paying a double salary to look after your parents since she was paying your sister and the old age home?

12. A: The short answer is yes. There was no contract between my parents and my sister saying that they had agreed on a salary.

13. Q: Why is there no deposition from your mother in the police report in October 2013 when the police invaded her house?

13. A: She was too traumatized to make a deposition. The police knew that they had made a big mistake. To justify my arrest, they lied and said that I had brutalized a policeman.

14. Q: Why was it so easy for your siblings to stop you from seeing your mother and putting an end to the lies that she did not want to see you.

14. A: My siblings had planned carefully every step of getting me disinherited. They knew that my mother would breakdown under pressure and do what my sister wanted when she was alone with my mother. So, the tactic was simple, each I approached my mother in Geneva or Alicante, my sister would immediately call the police. Then she would force my mother to tell the police that she did not want to see me and I was forced to leave. My mother had no other way to communicate with me.

15. Q: How can you be so sure that your sister was always telling your mother to tell the police that she did not want to see you.

15. A: If you look at the videos from the 15th of April 2012, you can hear my sister telling my mother to call the police to tell them to make me leave the house.

16. Q Why did you not go to Spain and get your father out of the old age home.

16. A: If I had obtained the medical reports during his time at the old age home, I would certainly have gone to Spain to rescue him despite all the commotion it would have created.
