

25 July 2011

Dear mum,

Could you please date and sign the 2011 tax déclaration as soon as possible and return it to me. You have already signed the 2010 tax déclaration. This is a new one that looks after the period between 1st January 2011 and 15 January 2011.

It is a bit disappointing to find out a year later that you had prepared a spécial LSV for dad so that the caisse maladie bills could be paid for him. Maybe it would be a good idea to repeat the process for you. I am sending you the forms that you have to fill in and sign. I am using the bank account that you previously used to pay out money to the CSS. A bit more coopération from your little helper would be appreciated. I am also sending you some blank forms in case you choose another bank account. Ail together there are 3 forms.

Over the last couple of years I have asked you and your little helper to look after the house in Spain so that one day we do not have to pay out Spanish inheritance taxes. Christ asked me to make sure that we find a compétent Spanish notaire. Could you please look after this as soon as possible?

In your last letter you said that your little helper had received the sum of Frs 25'430 in 2010.1 calculated Frs 7010 and 22'500 which totals Frs 29'510. As a kindness to you I asked the tax man if anything could be done with this amount. He answered that if you want to give away your money that is your business. On the other hand it would be most useful that you send me ail the funeral expenses.

The Zurich insurance for the assurance ménage needs to be signed and sent back as soon as possible. It is now in your name.

You have a spécial insurance accident with Zurich that dad did for you years ago. In case you had an accident it allowed you to be in a room with 2 persons. After seeing that you refuse to be treated in Geneva then I no longer think that it is useful for you to have this insurance. Send a fax immediately to the Zurich insurance to cancel it before the first of August. You would save Frs 258 a year.

I had enough money to pay for your CSS bills. The total amount came to about Frs 3'800. As soon as you fix up the LSV I will no longer have to pay out these bills.

Maybe soon one day you would like to transfer some money to the JNG account. Here is the IBAN: CH[REDACTED]

I have made a copy and paste of questions from my last letter that you have not yet answered.

Did you ever ask the régie if you were allowed to sublet the flat? What has happened to the brilliant plan of making money on your flat in Geneva?

From what I understand you are paying for [REDACTED] flat in Geneva, her caisse maladie as well as her upkeep in Spain. It would reassure me to know that if you have other resources of money that you have not told me about. If you are paying out all this money and we know that your income is now less then it is obvious that you are now eating away at your capital to survive. I hope that you are aware of this.

You could also give me the signature on the COOP bank account. Tell me if you want this so I can get the necessary papers for you to sign.

I was quite shocked the other day when you did not dare say a word that might go against your little helper's desires. There is still something called freedom of speech. You should be allowed to sign a tax form without being terrified of having your little helper giving you a hard time afterwards. This is absolutely an abnormal situation and does not reassure me that you are acting under your free will. All these years I have been looking after all your finances in Geneva as well as looking after your flat. I know that you fully trust me so you can imagine how amazed I was when all of a sudden you allowed [REDACTED] instead of me to look after your private matters as well as getting him to look after renting your flat to one of his [REDACTED] girlfriends. You are definitely not free to do what you want and are being pressured into accepting decisions that you would never have accepted before my dear sister decided to install herself in your house and at your expense. I can see clearly that there is an emotional blackmail going on. You do everything that she wants and in return she allows you to continue living in Spain.

I looked over the death certificate that was sent to me 3 months after dad passing away. I saw that the certificate was delivered by the Spanish on the 22nd of January. I remember now that my dear sister and brother wanted [REDACTED] to look after handing in the death certificate as if it needed a lawyer's knowledge to hand in such a simple document I remember asking my dear sister and [REDACTED] why it was taking so long to get this death certificate from the Spanish authorities. I was delivered a series of lies that really makes me wonder what sort of conniving tricks they were plotting. I am still ashamed that my family asked the little [REDACTED] to look after our private family affairs. Is there no [REDACTED] pride left over at all?

Love,
